- We did run out of food on all fronts so we need to figure out how to get RSVPs to get the right amount of food. How can we do this? Can we get the teachers to mention this? It would be helpful!
 - Can we incentivize this? If we have RSVP's can they get in a special line?
 - Can we give out movie tickets to each RSVP?
 - On the next flyer we need to make sure people know that RSVPs are the only way we can estimate the correct amount of food.
 - We also need to make sure that we people know we are going to order much more food next time.
